YES, REMEMBERING . . .

Those spelling lessons, definitions, accent marks, and then making them into sentences.

THE PEP RALLIES and . . .

Ann, Linda, Brenda, Alice Fay, Cheryl, and Betty, these "peppy" school spirited cheerleaders, were always ready to lead the student body in a pep rally.

ASSEMBLIES . . .

Rev. E. C. Vestal, the pastor of Fort Gibson Methodist Church, was our guest speaker at our first assembly.

We enjoy our nice new auditorium so much. This fall when we came back to school, new drapes had been put up. This really set it off. The 1960-61 annual staff left the lectern as their gift to the auditorium.

Mr. Martin of the United States Society of Zoology is showing one of his many animals in the auditorium. Miss Brown and Mrs. Clifton are wondering if they have seen that expression in one of their English classes.

AND, THEN, TOO . . .

Omer Kiser, the president of the S. C. A.

IT'S FORMAL

Kyle and Saundra prefer watching.

Tommy Castle, Sue Stone, Charlene Ring, and Bryce Castle seem to be enjoying themselves at the Prom.

Linda and Phillip look as if they could have danced all night.

Unidentified spooks!
Could it be Earnestine and Jeweldine Hensdill?

Mr. Campbell and Mr. Rhea,
"Say nothing to anyone about anyone that you wouldn't want anyone to hear."

Miss Wysor, Mr. McCoy, Mr. Cross, and Miss Brown chat informally at the faculty meeting.

IT'S INFORMAL

IT'S TRADITIONAL

Randal, Andre', Jean, Frankie, Eugene, Jane, Paul, and Texie are proud of their rings.

Alice, Shirley, Cheryl, Betty, Linda, and Ann lead the Homecoming Parade.

Sammy, Brenda, and Elsie admire the traditional white mum worn by Lynn Hankins.

Earnestine, Larry, Phyllis, and Hazel are autographing their yearbooks.

Darryl Baker is trying to convince Freda Herron, Virginia Chafin, and Ronnie Milton that his girl is going to be the Homecoming Queen.

IT'S FRIENDLY

CROWDED CORRIDORS . . .

Shall I go to college or work? How shall I prepare for life? These are questions for deep thought for all students, particularly the seniors. Counseling Linda Meade is Mr. Sabo.

Holding their first election in the cafeteria, the seniors show much concern who will be the class officers for 1961-62. By the show of hands, we can see it is not unanimous.

Randall Blackstone, Shirley Hobbs, Judith Bradley, and Delores Sutherland are decorating the bulletin board, giving emphasis to the opening of school. They seem to be doing a good job.

ALL OF THIS IS OUR SCHOOL

IN MEMORIAM

FRIENDS AND LOVED ONES MOURN THE PASSING OF TWO MEN THIS YEAR

Mr. White came to Russell County in 1924 as principal of Temple Hill High School and held that position for twelve years. After resigning his teaching career, he devoted most of his time to orcharding.

He served on the Board of Supervisors for many years, where he served most capably and was a recognized authority on its many complex problems. It was during this time he pioneered bus transportation in Russell County and led the campaign to build a new high school and elementary school at Castlewood. For this task the county could not have found a man more dedicated to the cause. Today we enjoy this modern new building.

The words of Daniel Webster describe his teaching career as expressed by a former student: "If we work upon marble, it will perish, If we work upon brass, time will efface it. If we rear temples, they will crumble to dust. But if we work upon men's immortal mind, if we imbue them with high principles, with the just fear of God and love of their fellow men, we engrave on those tablets something which no time can efface, and which will brighten and brighten to all eternity."

Mr. Frank Harr, a modest softspoken man was indeed a born leader and a modern pioneer. He loved people and found room for them in his heart.

He served on the Russell County School Board almost fourteen years. Here his deep interest lay in the betterment of all educational fields.

No man, it is said, is indispensable. The void is soon filled by another. Yet each man leaves his own mark-a mark which cannot be replaced or erased. So it is with Mr. Harr.

FOREWORD

This year at Castlewood High has given us many things to remember: The happy reunions of the first days at school. Then, too, the sad feeling, some realizing this would be their last year at C. H. S. The excitement of the football season followed by the Homecoming . . . . The first six weeks' tests . . . . The Christmas Season . . . . The anxiety of exam week . . . . Junior-Senior Prom . . . . and then . . . . Graduation. For some students, this year was their first at C. H. S. For others, their last. For everyone it was "A Year to Remember."

Weather permitting, "Old Glory" is hoisted to her lofty height each morning. Kyle Hillman and Johnny Ziegler are performing this duty, while Frank Clifton plays to the colors.

ADMINISTRATORS

It is most appropriate that we honor our principal, Mr. Carter, who has played a major role in our school lives. In addition to his many duties as principal, he has inspired us to keep pace with the great strides in curriculum changes, athletic competition, and student activities. He has led our school through the transition from the eleven-year to the twelve-year system.

We express our deepest gratitude to Mr. Carter for the many things he did to enrich our lives and make this year "A Year to Remember."

The Schools of Russell County Since 1928

It would be impossible to say how many times we have been encouraged and helped by the outgoing friendliness of our assistant principal, Mr. John Graybeal.

It is he who watches our grades and activities to make sure that we are traveling the right road. It is he who helps us about our scholarships. Our years in high school and our future in all fields of life are influenced by his guidance and practical advice.

The faces you will see on the following pages are those of the 680 pupils in the 1961-62 student body of Castlewood High School. Here are the boys and girls who made the story of this yearbook and for whom it is told. They are the school, for in the final analysis, the students make the school what it is. Any way each student has made a mark for himself and to us, the seniors, it is "A Year to Remember."

CLASS HISTORY

The senior class of 1962 is reaching the first plateau of life - graduation from Castlewood High School.

Our precious memories are numerous as we recall the years that have passed so swiftly. Learning the combination to our first locker, finding our way around the "giant" building, and trying to figure out our schedules proved to be a memorable experience. Next came the chief joy of our freshman year, that of no longer being the youngest class in school. Our sophomore year we remember well as we gradually became accustomed to this new home away from home and participated in school activities. By the time our junior year rolled around, we felt more self-confident and relaxed. As seniors, we realized it would be our responsibility to set an example for the underclassmen to follow.

Strange as it may seem, this is not the end of the road for any of us, it is simply the parting of the ways. Our road has branched into many smaller roads, some leading to college, some to immediate working positions, and some to professional training. We must never stop and linger along the wayside, but we must continue on in our quest for further knowledge, for this is just the beginning.

"A Year to Remember" is featured within the following pages. Each school year brings a revival of that ever-present school spirit. September is a busy month of paying fees, meeting classes, getting schedules changed, electing officers, and that all-important first senior class meeting!

From our many activities we developed leadership and initiative as we worked on different club projects. We learned cooperation and teamwork as we met newspaper and yearbook deadlines, practiced for plays, and took part in band festivities.

Stimulating greater interest in the use of the library and improving the library service are the primary aims of the Library Club. Writing book reviews by the members to appear in "The Sentinel" have helped to stimulate interest in a better choice of reading. Besides making the bulletin boards more attractive, the members make supplementary reading lists for the teachers. Purchasing bookmarkers have helped to eliminate "dog-eared" books.

LIBRARY CLUB

ART CLUB

BETA CLUB

Beta members are leaving the stage after induction of new members which was held November 15, 1961.

BETA CLUB OFFICERS

Janice Meade, president; Bobbie Kiser, vice-president; Eva Lynn Searcey, secretary; Jane Garrett, treasurer; Eugene Stone, reporter; Mrs. Carter, sponsor.

The purpose of the Beta Club is to promote the ideals of honesty, leadership, and service among high school students; and to reward meritorious achievement. Our members were asked to join because of their worthy characters, scholarships, creditable achievements, and commendable attitudes.

The main objectives for the year were buying clothes for two primary students for Christmas, paying for two pages in the annual, making a float for the Homecoming game, which won first place, and being responsible for the student body learning our Alma Mater song. (All have been realized except the last one mentioned.)

The club held a "Colors of the Rainbow" ceremony for the induction of new members at an assembly program in November.

It seems as if the Betas caught the "Dragon"--the first prize.

The SCA is an organization which has as its primary aim the development of good citizenship. Every student in school is a member of this student organization. Many students feel the SCA is just another club in which they have no part. Perhaps getting the entire student body to feel they are an integral part of the SCA is one objective that the SCA must strive to attain.

The SCA as it is organized in most schools with representatives from every student activity and organization naturally falls heir to the responsibility of coordination of student activities.

The SCA plans a vigorous program this year. Believing that progress is only accomplished through action, the SCA has planned many worthy objectives.

The objectives include the following:

1. To organize all other clubs under SCA direction.
2. To plan a Christmas program.
3. To encourage a better school-community relationship.
4. To keep school grounds clean.
5. To sponsor American Education Week.
6. To sponsor floats and a Homecoming dance.
7. To keep bulletin boards up to date.
8. To have grace at meals.

FIRST ROW: Robert Osborne, Douglas Purcell, Don Bradley, Paul Adams, Sammy Gibson, Maynard Franklin, Mr. Rhea, advisor. SECOND ROW: Sammy Osborne, David Fields, Ronald Dickenson, W. H. Horne, Raymond Harmon, Giles Johnson, Mack Perry, Clifton Phillips, Johnny Blevins. THIRD ROW: Gaines Dickenson, Sidney Salyers, David Horne, Abel Oney, Sammy Statzer, Garry Biggs, Eddie Stidham. FOURTH ROW: Darryl Baker, Kelly Monk, Charlie Osborne, Lloyd Johnson, Allen Jessee, Ronnie Salyers, Marvin Jessee, Bobby Ireson. FIFTH ROW: Wiley Kiser, Carroll Holbrook, Clayton Wallace, Roger Chafin, James Sexton, Tommy Johnson, Wayne Osborne. SIXTH ROW: James Jessee, Stony Meade, Henry Moore, Ben Franklin, J. C. Perry, Donald Couch, Bobby Davis, Leonard Hall. SEVENTH ROW: Eddie Robinson, Tavis Johnson, Lincoln Hale, Harold Hall, Ronnie Chafin, David Johnson, Wayne Salyer.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Tommy Johnson, James Gibson, and Abel Oney are making a go cart.

Our F.F.A. is associated with the state and national organizations. Our chapter has a definite program of work to help our members to attain the primary aim of the development of agricultural leadership, co-operation, and citizenship. Each year delegates are sent to the State Rally at V.P.I. The F.F.A. sponsors a Purebred Yorkshire Pig Chain. At the present time we have five animals in our chain. We also present a program each year for the Castlewood Farmers Club and strive to have a well-planned educational program for each of our chapter meetings. Some of our other activities are entering exhibits at the Russell County Fair and showing hogs at the Bristol Junior Hog Show.

F. H. A. OFFICERS

FIRST ROW: Eva Lynn Searcey, president; Barbara Lampkins, vice-president; Jacqueline Dishman, song leader. SECOND ROW: LaDonna Cable, secretary; Virginia Grubb, treasurer; Cheryl Chaffin, reporter; Linda Bailey, historian; Doris Dickenson, parliamentarian.

By inviting professional people to visit our Home Economics Department, we feel a further interest in the various phases of homemaking has been greatly increased. An interior decorator, home economist, a buyer for a department store, a nurse, and a beautician, have given lectures to the F. H. A. girls this year. Also a demonstration on crafts was given.

Gathering natural materials this fall to make dried winter arrangements for our department has developed new hobbies in F. H. A. Food baskets for Thanksgiving were given to needy families. The girls also entered an educational exhibit for the Russell County Fair--individual F. H. A. members entered many exhibits too.

Patricia Dickenson measures and gauges a hem for Janet Cook while Dora Hughes looks on. Carolyn Sproles and Nancy Carico watch as Virginia Booker fits material to the form.

FUTURE TEACHERS CLUB

Miss Maine, sponsor. FIRST ROW: Brenda Wilson, Linda Turner, Gail Fields, Barbara Wallace, Jane Dickenson, Shirley Lewis. SECOND ROW: Virginia Chafin, Kaye Sluss, Patty Carty, Nancy Dooley, Patsy Osborne, Margaret Meadows. THIRD ROW: Delores Sutherland, Lynn Hankins, Betty Dingus, Bobbie Kiser, Susan Muse. FOURTH ROW: Shirley Powers, Earnestine Hensdill, Jeweldine Hensdill, Janice Meade.

As prospective teachers, the members hope to maintain high standards of scholarship, citizenship, and to encourage the development of personality and character traits necessary for successful teaching. The members are willing to be of assistance to both high school and grade teachers. They strive for better student-teacher relationship. Soliciting clothing for the Clothing Bank has been successfully carried out. The club has joined the National Future Teachers Club.

CO-ED HI-Y

Co-Ed Hi-Y Club received its charter at an Induction and Charter Presentation Ceremony with Rev. E. C. Vestal as the principal speaker. Mr. Fulton K. Johnson, Secretary of the Western Virginia District of the Y.M.C.A., presented the charter to Elaine Farr, President, who accepted it for the club. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community. Mrs. Sutherland and Mr. McCoy are the advisors.

The toss of the coin, the referee's whistle, cheers of encouragement---the 1961-62 Blue Devils sports season was off to a fighting start as our football team took to the field in our opening game with St. Paul.

Of course we did not win every game, but we compiled a record worthy of praise, losing only to Lebanon and Garden.

The athletic program stressed good sportsmanship and skills which have paid large dividends by winning a fine sportsmanship rating for the last two years and thus making "A Year to Remember" in athletics.

Two big features of the year were the Junior-Senior Prom and the selecting of "Miss Castlewood." The Homecoming festivities and the Bonfire Rally created much enthusiasm and determination to win.

HOMECOMING FOR 1961

Bill Stallard; Brenda Wilson - James Gibson; Shirley Dingus - Randall Hall; Phyllis Castle - Darryl Baker; Patsy Osborne - Larry Ramsey; Connie Castle - Sammy Gibson; Joey Mason - Sammy Osborne; Linda Meade - Douglas Purcell.

The Future Nurses float won second place.

The FHA float won third place.

Glenna Ball, Dana Kiser, and Mr. John Sabo help with the leis.

Prom date, May 8, 1961, rolled around and the Juniors went all the way in providing an elaborate prom using as their theme a "Hawaiian Cruise." The minute one stepped from the gangplank he felt he was on an island in Hawaii.

We were given leis of various colors which enhanced the beautiful surrounding of palms, tropical fish, birds, and flowers.

The "Royal Aristocrates" under the direction of Mr. Anderson furnished the music by which the Juniors, Seniors, and their dates danced until midnight. This climaxed "A Year to Remember" and the Juniors began to look forward to next year when they would be the socialites.

A penny for your thoughts, Jean.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Who's next, please?

"Silence is golden."

The "Hula Girls" - Dana and Glenna.

Sammy, you're too tall for me.

PTA SPONSORS

A beauty contest sponsored by the P.T.A. was held December 2, 1961, in the Castlewood High School auditorium where fifty-three girls vied for the title of Miss Castlewood. The contestants were beautiful in gowns of rainbow hue. The graciousness and charm the girls displayed made the judging of this event so difficult.

Elizabeth Lampkins, senior, is chosen Miss Castlewood for 1961-62.

BEAUTY CONTEST

P.T.A. officers: Mrs. W. B. McInturff, president, (SEATED); Mrs. James White, treasurer; Miss Geneva Mullins, secretary; Mrs. I. A. Beauchamp, parliamentarian. The vice-presidents, Mrs. Robert Griffith, Mrs. C. G. Dickenson, Mrs. R. N. Ball were absent when picture was taken.

Barbara Axsom, senior, was a runner-up.

Linda Chafin was selected by the senior class and faculty for the Good Citizenship Award.

Selection is based on dependability, service, cooperation, leadership, and general interest and achievement in school.

Linda belongs to the Beta Club and is the vice-president of the Future Teachers Club.

The yearbook staff wishes to express our many thanks and sincere appreciation to our advertisers for their help in making the Castletonian successful financially. Only through such financial assistance can our yearbook become a reality.

With this in mind, we ask the students and teachers to give their patronage at every opportunity possible. We feel that we are indeed fortunate in having such interested businessmen who are willing to help us record our school year for 1962.
